Looks like most reviews of the new terminals are focusing on the iPhone/iPad app experience. The main areas of improvement over the Prezi app are the ability to annotate objects and the fact that it's now an iPhone/iPad app. I looked at the app on my iPad, and it seemed to make the most sense using the iPad in landscape mode. Previously, the app was only designed for portrait mode. There are a few other things I like about the new app 1) Field to catch all events and then allow users to edit/annotate after they've been received.
