What to look for What does it mean to be a child of God? To find this out, you need to recognize your own sinfulness and your need of a Savior. No one else will do! No other religion will do! The real Jesus Christ is the only hope for you and your salvation. He was not perfected till He was crucified, and He is not complete until He is resurrected. The Nicene Creed is not wrong, but it does not give a sufficient description of Christ's doctrines. Christ said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6). The Christian is a child of God; a citizen of heaven. He is a member of the eternal family; he has a father in heaven, a Savior and a family. He is one with Christ in the body of Christ. He has been entrusted to a living representative of the heavenly Father. The Bible does not promote infant baptism. However, it does promote the baptism of believers (Acts 2:38). The words and actions of Jesus demonstrate His deity, perfect humanity and perfect divinity. His life and teachings reveal the most important doctrines: the Trinity and the Incarnation. Jesus' death on the cross was sufficient to pay for all sin. His resurrection means that He is now alive. The Church is the new body of Christ. Christ's body is the Church. The Church is the chief place in the world where we meet Jesus. The Church is His living congregation. We are one with Christ through the indwelling Holy Spirit. Jesus is the head, we are the body, and the Holy
